BERLIN SAYS THE ALLIES FELL BACK

Declares Germans Took offensive and Drove Enemy Ten Miles

VIOLENT ASSAULTS.

Bombardment of French Fortified Positions Continues—No Decisive Result is Announced.

Berlin (via The Hague), Sept. 26—In its official review of the situation issued today, the war office declares the German right has taken the offensive, and has driven the allies back ten miles along the Oise river.

The statement says that while the allies have been re-enforced, they have been unable to regain any of the captured territory. A series of violent assaults are declared to be in progress, with the advantage remaining on the side of the Germans, who have inflicted heavy losses on the enemy.

The movement of the German forces along the Meuse river continues. it is stated, with the Germans slowly driving the French back on their main columns. The bombardment of the French fortified position of Verdun and the chain of the so-called Meuse forts, seven in number, extending toward Toul, is in progress without interruption. The French are making strenuous efforts to relieve these forts before they are reduced, but they are being held in check by the German armies of the left.

The general situation in France remains favorable to the Germans, the war office says, although there has as yet been no decisive result. The German armies of the center and left are slowly but surely breaking down the French defense, and important developments are hoped for in this section of the battle line.

ZEPPELIN PERIL

Antwerp, Sept. 26—Attacks in force by a great fleet of Zeppelins on England are predicted here. It is said these German aerial battleships are being assembled for a flight across the English Channel, with a thick curtain of fog to obscure movement.

It is known that Count Zeppelin inventor of the giant dirigibles that bear his name, has volunteered to lead a fleet of these vessels over the Channel and across the city of London.

With the coming of foggy autumn season the danger from this cause is certain to be acute, and the British are already making preparations to forestall such a raid.

A number of the officials of the British aviation squad have been at Ostend for the last week, and it is understood they have a fleet of armored biplanes in readiness, prepared to take the offensive when the dirigibles are sent into action.

NEWS OF THE DAY

Bishop F. S. Spalding, head of the Episcopal Church, in Utah, was instantly killed at Salt Lake City last night, when an automobile in which he was riding struck a curb and overturned.

The House yesterday by a vote of 254 to 135, with two members answering "present," passed the emergency revenue bill, which will add $105,000,000 to the income from the United States internal revenue income, according to estimates.

Smoldering discontent among the mixed nationalists of Austria has burst into open flames, according to advices received by diplomats in Rome. In Bohemnia, Austrian Silesia, and Croatia revolts already have broken out, these diplomatic reports say. Rioting is said to have been in progress at Prague for several days, many persons having been killed or injured.

From several points the news was received in London yesterday that the Kaiser is under the care of the imperial physician. He is suffering from a severe cold. A correspondent of the Chronicle, wiring from Geneva, says that the Emperor spent a long time in the trenches around Verdun and was thoroughly drenched by the heavy rain. He failed to change his clothing, and was later forced to remain in bed while his physicians took steps to prevent an attack of pneumonia.

The London Daily Telegraph's Rome correspondent telegraphs: "Signor Guido Fusinato, minister of instruction and Italian delegate to The Hague, is dying at Schio, having fired a revolver shot near his heart. He is a strong partisan of the triple alliance, and at the beginning of the war was anxious that Italy should side with the allies. Seeing, however, the trend of public opinion was against his idea, and being then attacked by newspapers, he attempted suicide."

La Liberte, of Paris, says that Count von Moltke, son of the German commander-in-chief, was killed yesterday by a shell which blew his head off. The paper also states that Count von Moltke wore a coat of mail and that before the battle he stayed in the presbytery, where several times daily he pointed a revolver at the priest's head and threatened to shoot him at the slightest sign of treachery. He kept a revolver on the table and guards posted at the door and at the windows of his bedroom.

A dispatch from Bordeaux says the French foreign office made the statement that General Stenger, commanding the 53rd German infantry brigade, has issued an order of which the following is a translation: "Make no prisoners. Shoot all who fall into your hands, singly or in groups and despatch the wounded, whether armed, or unarmed, as the Germans must leave no Frenchman living behind them."

KAISER'S TALISMAN.

Said to Carry Four-Leaf Clover Borne by His Grandfather.

Copenhagen, Sept. 26.—A four-leafed clover pressed, dried, and scented—the same one carried by his grandfather 44 years ago—is tucked away in a pocket of Kaiser Wilhelm's gray greatcoat these days.

The little daughter of an old court official, Louis Schneider, plucked this leaf in the royal park, Kabelsburg, in July, 1870. After the German victory at Sedan the child presented the green spray to old King William.

Months later the Schneider child and her father were summoned before the emperor.

"Here is your little piece of clover" said the monarch. "It has won me victory. I give it back to you, my child, and hope it will bring you luck too."

The kaiser than cut off one of his white curls and handed it with the clover to the girl.

Years later Miss Schneider presented the talisman to the daughter of the Countess Dobna as a baptismal gift. When the war broke out in August last the countess, through the empress, presented the clover to the kaiser.

FALL OF PRZEMYSL IN IMMINENT

Non-Combattants Leave the City and the Bombardment Continues.

WEAKNESS IN FORTS

General Russian Advance Well in Progress—Berlin Said to be Objective Point of Czar's Army.

Petrograd, Sept. 26—Advices from the Austrian front today say that the capture of Przemysl is believed imminent. All non-combatants have been permitted to leave the city and the Russian bombardment continues from all sides. Already weaknesses have been noted in the eastern forts where the fire of the Russian artillery has been exceptionally deadly.

Meanwhile the main Russian army is continuing its movement along the railroad lines, both from Jaroslaw and Przemysl, toward Cracow. It is now known that a desperate resistance will be encountered at Cracow.

A strong German force has now assumed the work of defending that important fortification and a German general staff has replaced the Austrian commandant according to advice reaching this city.

It is announced that the Russian army of General Rennenkampf has assumed the offensive and has repulsed the Germans who tried to invade Russian Poland in the direction of Suwalki. While details are lacking, the early reports to the general staff indicate that the repulse has been serious to the Germans, who were driven back toward Gumbinnen with the loss of many men and a number of cannon.

The general Russian advance on the German positions is admittedly well in progress. For stategic reasons the details are ordered withheld by the censor, but the announcement is authorized that the advance, with Berlin as the objective, is "now in progress." Whether this means that the known movements are being carried on with this intention or whether a great movement is masked is not revealed. But the significant fact is admitted that the entire Russian army, including even the troops brought through Siberia from Manchuria, are now at positions ayailable for service.

ALLEGED PEACE PROPOSALS

Antwerp, Sept 26—Premier de Broqueville said Germany had made fresh proposals for peace with Belgium, but declared that they had been rejected.

The peace proposals from Germany are reported to have been transmitted by Karl Liebnecht, member of the German Socialists, who is said to have been touring Belgium.

London, Sept. 26—An official statement received from Berlin by the Mariconi Wireless Telegraph Company says:

"The board of trustees of the Imperial Bank of Germany draw special attention to the fact that the bank proved itself quite equal to the exceptional demands made upon it by the war and that Germany is armed both economically and financially to fight a war on all sides until results have been obtained which will secure the political and economic future of Germany."

CHOLERA FOLLOWS IN WAKE OF WAR

Cases of Asiatic Plague Have Been Discovered in Vienna Hospital.

EFFORTS TO ISOLATE.

Seventy Thousand Wounded in Camps and City Add to the Seriousness of the Situation.

Vienna (via Rome) Sept. 26—The government bacteriologists sent to the concentration hospital, where the wounded are being cared for, have established the presence of genuine Asiatic cholera.

Every effort is being made to isolate and stamp out the disease and all patients who exhibit the slightest signs of illness are rushed to an isolated camp, where they remain under observation.

The fact that there are probably 70,000 wounded in the camp and in the city adds to the seriousness of the situation. Every precaution to prevent an epidemic, however, has been taken and the physicians are hopeful.

DAY OF ATONEMENT.

Most Solemn Hebrew Holiday Begine Next Tuesday.

The Day of Atonement, will begin next Tuesday evening, when services will be concluded in the Jewish Synagogue by Rabbi H. R. Richmond.

The day falls simultaneously, according to the biblical command, with the tenth day of the seventh month of the lunar calendar. It was prescribed by Moses originally as a priestly holiday, by which is meant that the priests had the responsibility of doing all the atonement for themselves and the house of Israel. The service in the earliest days consisted of sacrifice, but in the course of time the holiday has assumed various forms. Since the destruction of the Temple of Jerusalem, 70 years after Christ, when the sacrificial cult was discontinued, the services have lost their distinctly priestly character, and have become a holiday for all the people. The sentiment or keynote which runs through the whole Atonement ritual is repentance prayer and righteousness. All the people fast from sundown to sundown. The service closes on Wednesday night with the blowing of the ram's horn, which is sounded in order to indicate to Israel that forgiveness is granted the sinner by God on the sinner's repentance.

GERMANS AT WATERLOO.

Correspondent Thinks Retreat Into Belgium Impending.

London, Sept. 26.—The Ostend correspondent of the Reuter Telegram Company sends the following dispatch:

'Forty thousand Germans have been encamped in the environs of Waterloo since Saturday, headquarters being established at Ruysbroeck. All passports to Mons are being refused by the German authorities at Brussels, the object apparently being to prevent travelers seeing the great amount of army transport which has already returned there from France.

"The Germans have installed heavy siege guns at Grimberghen and Meysse. To prevent the inhabitants of these places from reporting this fact the men have all been shut up in a church and the women have been sent to Brussels."

COURT NOTES.

In the Corporation Court today a verdict was rendered for the defendant in the case of the Imperial Curtain Company vs. James M. Duncan and others. The suit arose over the attempt of the plaintiff to collect a claim against the defendant for furnishing an advertisement for a drop curtain at the Opera House. The defendant contended that the Opera House had not been opened every night and that the terms of the contract had not been carried out by the plaintiffs.

In the case of Kate Redmond et vs. Mary Cassidy et al. a decree was entered referring the cause to R. B. Washington, special commissioner, for a report.

A deed was recorded from the Citizens National Bank to Minnie A. Armistead and Louis L. Armistead, her husband, transferring to them a brick house and lot on the south side of Prince street, near Fairfax.

WEATHER STAYS STRUGGLE

Snow, Rain and Disease Causing Lull in War.

London, Sept. 26—The weather conditions, which were exceptionally favorable during the first six weeks of the war have now changed radically and are in the main responsible for the lull prevailing in all the war areas, with the exception of the combined Montenegrin and Servian assault on the coveted provinces of Bosnia and Herzegovina.

Accompanying the reports of bad weather comes the ominous news of the presence of disease. Hungary has acknowledged an outbreak of cholera among her troops, and while it is denied officially, the same scourge is said to have attacked the Servian troops. General epidemics of milder diseases may be expected in the western battle area, where the troops on both sides, drenched by a pitiless rain, are lying in flooded trenches.

The operations in Alsace-Lorraine are said to have come to a complete stop on account of snowstorms. Rain and floods are reported also from the scene of the Galician operations, and probably account for the cessation of the Russian attack on the retreating Austrians. Storm conditions will interfere greatly with motor transports, and troops taking the offensive may be greatly handicapped by inability to bring up their artillery.

Several of the great German siege guns, probably destined for use against the fortifications of Paris have fallen into the hands of the enemy, having become stuck in the mud when the Germans began their retirement from the Marne. The French are now digging this artillery out, but the same cause which led to their abandonment may prevent the Allies turning them on their former owners.

VILLA SENDS A DEFIANT REPLY

Fight Between General and Provisional President Must Continue.

"TREATY OF TORREON"

Continues to Mobilize Forces—Fighting Will commence Soon—Reletses Military Leader.

Juarez, Sept. 26—The fight between Gen. Francisco Villa and Provisional President Carranza must go on to the end, there can be no mediation of their differencs.

This was the reply General Villa sent from Chihuahua today to Carranza's military chiefs who had urged him to accept a peaceful settlement.

Villa charged that Carranza had violated the "treaty of Torreon," framed several months ago when a similar break between the two leaders was mended.

Backing up his declaration of hostilities Villa continues to mobilize his forces and fighting below Torreon is expected to begin shortly.

Villa has released Gen. Alvaro Obregon, Caranza's chief military leader according to official announcement. Obregon is en route to Mexico City. In bidding him farewell, Villa told Obregon they would meet again soon on the battlefield.

Gen. Benjamin Hill, Caranza leader in Sonora, was defeated yesterday in a skirmish with Governor Maytorena's forces at Santa Barbara. Hill's troops retired to Naco and are fortifying the town against attack.

FEAR FOR MISSIONARIES.

Washington, Sept. 26.—Fears that Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Hill, of Bedford county, Virginia, who are teachers and missionaries in Asiatic Turkey, are in danger were brought to Washingto yesterday by Mrs. L. Dillon, near Lychburg.

The last heard from the Hills, according to Mrs. Dillon, was when they were at Alexandreta. Mrs. Dillon deposited $1,000 with the State Department to be sent the Hills. The Governmet officials will try to get word from the teacher missionaries.

LAW A COMPROMISE.

Provisions of Instrument do Not Suit Prohibitionists.

Baltimore, Sept. 26—In his address at the Prohibition mass-meeting Thursday night Field Secretary Mills characterized the Virginia prohibition Amendment as a compromise because it permitted the manufacture of whiskey and beers within the commonwealth while prohibiting its sale within the confines of the state. The law as ratified last Tuesday differs materially from any other now in force in any one of the eight prohibition states.

Prohibitionalists are not at all satisfied with this law, which they claim will not prohibit. They point to the fact that manufacturers can send their products to some point without the state but that a way can be found to bring it back to a consumer. Of course much will depend upon the stringency of the law to be enacted by the General Assembly to enforce the prohibition features but even then some way can be found to get around it.

The failure to regulate the sale of cider is also criticized. The law does not interfere with its manufacture or sale, yet tipplers are known to have obtained the same results from hard cider as from whiskey. It is predicted that when the Prohibition features become effective, there will be a great boom in the cider industry and the apple growers will be the beneficiaries. It is understood that cider was excepted to please the farmers and this accounts for the big vote in the country districts in favor of the amendment.

Mc ADOO NAMES VA. BANKS

Five Carry Reserves Largely in Excess of Legal Requirements.

Five Virginia national banks, all in the smaller cities, were named to-day by Secretary of the Treasury Mc Adoo as among those carrying reserves largely in excess of the legal requirements, as shown by their reports to the Comptroller of the Currency on September 12.

Each of the banks listed is required by law to carry a reserve of only 15 per cent. The reserve held by some of the Virginia banks ranges from 27 to 45 percent.

"If the large amount of loanable funds that are kept from active employment, as indicated by these figures," said Mr. McAdoo, "was invested in commercial or agricultural paper, or loaned on proper security, the present situation would be greatly improved."

The Virginia banks named and the per cent of their reserves are:

First National Bank, Graham, 41 per cent.

Marshall National Bank, 45 per cent.

Tazewell National Bank, 29 per cent.

First National Bank, Wytheville, 27 per cent.

National Bank in Alexandria are not named.

DEATH OF GLASSBLOWER

Tobias D. Dillon, 34 years old, a glassblower, employed by the O. Dominion Glass Company, died at 4 o'clock this morning at his residence, 122 south Fairfax street. He is survived by a wife and one child. His remains will be sent to Bridgeton, N. J., for interment.

MUST CUT OUT LIQUORS

Excursion Resorts on the Potomac Will be Compelled to Sell Soft Drinks.

The decision, early in the spring, of the voters of Charles county, Md., to make the sale of liquor in that county illegal after May 1 next, and the more recent decision of the voters of Virginia to make the state absolutely dry after November 1, 1916, will affect most of the resorts along the Potomac by obliging them to cut out the sale of intoxicants, and it will be necessary for the excursionist to take his liquor refreshments with him if he wants to imbibe.

Marshall Hall which is in Charles county, Md., will be dry next season, but the dealers in liquor at Colonial Beach and the summer hotels in Virginia have two more seasons in which to adjust their business and prepare to stop selling alcoholic drinks.

A feature of the West Virginia law makes it illegal for any one to offer a drink to another, and it is probable, in the laws to be passed by the Virginia legislature to carry into effect statewide prohibition, stringent measures will be taken to prevent treating, so that any one who wants to drink will have to carry his own bottle.

River View, which for the past year or two has been run as a colored resort, is located in Prince Georges county, Md., Prince Georges has not adopted the local option amendment to its laws, and leaves River View the only resort on the Potomac at which liquor can be sold.

DEVOID OF CAESARISM.

The attitude of President Wilson toward the democrats of his home state will appeal to all Americans, no matter what may be their political predilections. Unlike so many of the aspiring in this world, he is giving his undivided attention to the duties of the high office he is filling so acceptably, and is not engaged in any scheming for the future. He seemingly takes the lofty ground that any act or suggestion on his part in reference to a second term in the White House is premature, if not indecent, but that should a majority of the representatives of the democratic party deem it proper to make him their standard-bearer in 1916 he may respond to the will of the people.

Fortunately many called upon to fill high or low positions too often commence electioneering as soon as they get into office in order to become their own successors; hence the public business intrusted to them is by no means satisfactorily performed. All democrats will rejoice to know that the present occupant of the White House is not of that genus.

The letter sent by Secretary Tumulty will be read with satisfaction especially by those who have called Mr. Wilson to the Presidency. He says:

"You were generous enough to consult me as to whether the Democrats of New Jersey had at this time indorsed the President for a second term. I had a talk with the President about it, and he deeply appreciates the generosity of the suggestion, but New Jersey is his home State, and the men who would act in this matter are his own personal friends, and he feels that it might seem as if he were taking advantage of the extraordinary situation now existing to gain some personal advantage through such an expression of confidence by them.

"He feels confident that you will know the spirit in which he says this and that in urging the Democrats of New Jersey not do this, he is not abating in the least his deep appreciation."

EXIT ROOSEVELT.

There is so much interest just now in the war news, and so much newspaper space devoted to it, that political events are getting but scant notice. The declaration of Col. Roosevelt that he would not be a candidate next year has been commented on by but a few papers, but the New York Herald considers it final and says.:

"Mr. Roosevelt's admission that in August he became convinced of his inability to obtain the Republican nomination for the Presidency in 1916 is acknowledgment of the inevitable. He would probably not admit that the spectacle of Kaiserism rampant in Europe has been an important factor in blighting the prospects of our own political Kaiser—meaning of course, himself—but the coincidence is striking. If that spectacle has not of itself sealed Mr. Roosevelt's fate it is because it was already sealed.

"Bereft of all prospect of becoming the Republican nominee, Mr. Roosevelt ceases to be a Presidential possibility. He can only continue his leadership of a forlorn hope whose purpose is to damage the party from which he obtained every office he ever held."

RETURNS FROM ELECTION.

Richmond, Va., Sept. 26.—Returns from the prohibition election of last Tuesday are coming to the office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth by every mail. About one-third have already come to hand, and when they have all been received the State Board of Canvassers will hold a session and certify the returns to the Governor.

When this has been done the Governor will issue a formal proclamation directing the enforcement of the law at the time specified in the enabling act.

The question has been repeatedly asked what steps will have to be taken in case there should be a demand for the repeal of the law. There is difference of opinion on the question, but it is believed that the steps necessary would be for the people of the State to have an act passed by the Legislature for again submitting the matter to the people for their decision, while others contend that the Legislature would be competent to pass on the measure and to repeal the present law.

COMFORTING WORDS.

Many an Alexandria Household Will Find Them So

To have the pains and aches of a bad back removed—to be entirely free from annoying, dangerous urinary disorders, is enough to make any kidney sufferer grateful. The following advice of one who has suffered will prove comforting words to hundreds of Alexandria readers.

Mrs. Martha L. Byrne 209 Wilkes St., Alexandria, says: "I was suffering severely from backache. My kidneys were badly disordered and I felt all run down. I was helped so much by the first box of Doan's Kidney Pills that I kept on taking them until I was well. I never fail to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills after all they have done for me and you may continue using the endorsement I gave some years ago. I take this remedy every once in a while and it keeps me in good health."

Price 50 cents at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Byrne had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

For a good many months I had trouble with my stomach and found it necessary to eat sparingly," writes Mrs. Bernice Wyandt, Lima, Ohio. "There was a dull and heavy feeling in my stomach after eating that was most uncomfortable. I was also annoyed by frequent headaches. After taking a number of medicines without benefit I got a bottle of Chamberlain's Tablets and found they were just the thing. Two bottles of them rid me of this complaint." For sale by all dealers.

NEGRO ESCAPES CHAIR.

Gets 18 Years in Penitentiary for Assault in Hanover.

Richmond, Sept. 26.—Russell Ellett, the negro who about dusk on the afternoon of September 7 assaulted little Violet Wright, eight-year-old daughter of W. R. Wright, of Doswell, while alone in the home of her parents, was given eighteen years in the penitentiary by a jury Thursday at a special term of Hanover county Circuit Court called to hear the case. The young girl was assaulted in her home while her parents were attending a ball game in the village. The negro left his victim in a semi-conscious condition with her feet tied.

Immediately after being sentenced he was rushed in an automobile to the Henrico county jail, accompanied by a squad of Hanover county officers, who feared that an enraged population would deal out summary justice. From the Henrico jail he will be taken to the penitentiary. Grave disatisfaction is felt over the verdict of the jury. One reason given as the reason for the light sentence which the negro received was his youth, it being shown that he was only eighteen years old.

A negro, charged with a capital offense against an elderly lady of Hanover county, was arrested Wednesday by Sheriff A .B. Hall, of Hanover, and was lodged in the Hanover county jail last night. According to the meagre reports of the crime which reached Richmond during the night, the victim of the assault was fifty-five years old. She is said to have well known in Hanover, and that the citizens are deeply stirred over the affair. This is the second assault committed in Hanover county this month, and feeling in the county is running high.

WORK OF TAX COMMISSION

Prepares Table Uncovering Surprising Conditions.

Richmond, Sept. 26—That big property owners are paying very little tax proportionately and that the bulk of the burden of taxation is carried on the shoulders of small property owners are shown by tables now in preparation by the State Tax Commission.

These tables also show that in some counties the assessment is less than one-eighth of the actual value of the property, while the assessments in other localities are so high that the average in the whole State is over 33 per cent.

From time to time the State Tax Commission will furnish to the press of the State summaries of certain parts of their work giving the people a chance to learn and familiarize themselves with the subjects to be discussed when the Legislature meets to take up the recommendations of the Tax Commission.

No question will attract more attention than that of the assessments of real estate for purposes of taxation. The people will readily understand why it is that the State is called on to pay so much money to some of the counties. This is due to the bald fact that the assessments for taxation are one third and the valuations when sold are another. The smaller the valuations made by the commissioners named by the courts to determine the value of the land the more the State is called on to pay to support these counties.

Tables have been prepared which will open the eyes of the public. The lowest valuation made in any county is in Grayson, where the assessments for taxation are based at less than one-eighth of the price at which the same lands have been sold. In other words, for taxation the lands have been placed at $12.20 on each $100 The average for the State in the counties is just 33⅓ cents on the $100.

ADMITS MURDER.

Richmond, Sept. 26.—Walter Clemons, of Buchanan county, now under arrest in Cleveland, Ohio, has confessed that he killed Charles Smith, in Buchanan county on December 20, 1912.

A requisition was issued from the Governor's office on the Governor of Ohio for the delivery of the man to Sheriff C. W. McCoy, who will bring Clemons back to Virginia to stand trial for the crime.

The letter received from the attorney for the Commonwealth in Buchanan county says that the chief of police of Cleveland informs him that Clemons has made a full and detailed confession of the crime and declares that he is willing to come back to stand trial for that offense.

Following the finding of the dead body of Smith there was a coroner's inquest, the verdict being that the man had come to his death at the hands of a man or men unknown to the jurors.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

High School Football Teams Hard at Work Practicing—Literary Society Expects to Publish Maroon and White.

Football practice was commenced at the High School the first part of the week, and the teams have been drilled into signals and formations steadily, in preparation for the hard work this week. The coaches of the two High Schools teams are Mr. Fisher and Mr. Prettyman.

The first and second teams scrimmaged yesterday, and, during the short while they played, showed that both elevens had excellent material for both backfields and line. The A. H. S. has a heavier team this year than last, and great work is expected in football this season. The High School football opens a week from today with Fredericksburg High School at the ball park. The second eleven expect to play their first game the day before. Both managers, Bladen and Brawner, are at work trying to complete a schedule of eight games for each team.

Literary Society Meets Tonight

The first regular meeting of the A. H. S. Literary Socity will be held tonight at 7:30 in the school building. All members are urged to be present and to bring, if possible, another pupil of the High School in order to increase the membership of the Literary Society as much as possible, a large number of the Society having graduated last year.

There is a large amount of business to be transacted at tonight's meeting in order to get the Society in running order for the year, to appoint committees, and to decide on the publishing of the Maroon and White, and the election of editors for the same. The Society expects to take over the Maroon and White, the publication of which was suspened last year after one year of business in 1912.

WISHED SHE COULD DIE

And Be Free From Her Troubles but Finds Better Way.

Columbia, Tenn.—"Many a time," says Mrs. Jessie Sharp, of this place "I wished I would die and be relieved of my suffering, from womanly troubles I could not get up, without pulling a something to help me, and stayed in bed most of the time. I could not do my housework.

The least amount of work tired me out. My head would swim, and I would tremble for an hour or more. Finally, I took Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I am not bothered with pains any more and I don't have to go to bed. In fact I am sound and well of all my troubles."

Cardui goes to all the weak spots and helps to make them strong. It acts with nature—not against her. It is for the tired, nervous, irritable women, who feel as if everything were wrong, and need something to quiet their nerves and strengthen the worn-out system.

If you are a woman, suffering from any of the numerous symptoms of womanly trouble, take Cardui. It will help you. At all druggists.

It was announced officially in Antwerp yesterday that the Belgian army had again taken the offensive against the Germans after sallying from the Antwerp forts and had defeated the enemy in a sharp fight south of Antwerp, forcing the Germans to withdraw toward Brussels. They captured 800 prisoners and three guns.

Despite the wantonfulness of the German authorities, says a dispatch from Copenhagen to the London Evening News, syndicalist posters proclaiming "We want peace; down with the Kaiser" are appearing on walls of buildings in Berlin. Travelers driving through the city between railway stations are ordered to keep the blinds of their vehicles drawn so that the posters may not be seen, it is said.
